

Gloria Bogdan Stasior

Loudonville - Gloria Bogdan Stasior, 93, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on August 28, 2025.

Born June 7, 1932 in Amsterdam, NY, Gloria was the daughter of Dr. Edward A. Bogdan and Valeria Olbrycht Bogdan. She graduated from Amsterdam High School and Russell Sage College with a Bachelor degree in psychology. Upon graduation, Gloria completed the Katharine Gibbs Program and worked in advertising in Manhattan. After marrying her love Dr. Orkan G. Stasior, the couple settled in Loudonville, NY where Orkan started his private ophthalmology and eye plastic surgery practice and they raised their family.

Gloria was a devoted wife, daughter and mother. She enjoyed her active involvement in various medical and community organizations, particularly the Junior League of Albany, Albany Medical Center Auxiliary Board, Child's Hospital Foundation Bishop's Ball and as a trustee of the Albany Academy for Girls. She was a longtime member of Schuyler Meadows Club, the Fort Orange Club, Lake George Club and a parishioner of St Pius X Church.

Gloria was an avid duplicate bridge player, winning numerous local competitions, and an accomplished golfer. Her welcoming smile and generous spirit were loved by all. She enjoyed traveling, entertaining and spending time with family and friends, especially at Saratoga Race Track and Lake George.

Gloria is survived by her four children: Dr. George Stasior of Loudonville, NY, Debbie (Jeff) Schumacher of Richmond, VA, Matthew Stasior of Newport Beach, CA and Dr. Lynn (Steve) Stewart of San Francisco, CA and seven grandchildren: Brandon (Melissa) Schumacher, Heather (Alex) Britton, Christopher, Abigail and Katharine Stasior, Bella Stasior and Lindsay Stewart. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 62 years, Orkan G. Stasior, MD, her parents, Edward and Valeria Bogdan, and her brother, Edward A. Bogdan, Jr.

A funeral Mass will be held 11:00 a.m. on September 26 at St. Pius X Church, 23 Crumitie Road, Loudonville, NY. A private burial service is planned.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Junior League of Albany or St. Pius X Church.
